LAUNDRIES WILL GUT AGENTS' COMMISSIONS

Branch Representatives Have Been Notified of a Five Per Cent Reduction.

NEW SCALE BEGINS TO-MORROW

Agents Say Abolition of Branches Is Laundrymen's Object-Report That Rival Company Will Be Formed.

After having talsed the price of laundry, the local washing and froning trust has now taken steps to play itself exclusively between the washtub and the public, The hundreds of branch agents, who have heretofore been doing a prefitable busine have been notified that, beginning Monday, their commissions will be reduced from 25 to 39 per cent. Agents say this mean that the small agent who handles very little laundry business will have to give up the enterprise altogether.

A report was current yesterday to the effect that the agents will form an organization and employ the same factors in fight-ing the laundry trust as the butchers are using in opposing the Heef Trust, namely to form an association and establish laundry of their own. Agents interview yesterday did not confirm this report. To fused to commit themselves on the sub

Among the laundries who have decided to reduce the commissions of their agents are the C. & C. Company, the Grand Laundry Company, Ideal Laundry Company, People's Laundry Company, Union Laundry Company, People's Laundry Company, People's Laundry Company, People's Laundry and Parish's Laundry Company, People and People and EXPRESSES FRANCE'S GRATITUDE TO AMERICA.

Count de Rochambeau greeted Chancellor Boeuffre very affectionately. The Count expressed admiration for the manner in which America has come to the relief of the people of Martinique, "We heard of it when the pilot boarded the ship," said the Count. "Not only have you given millions, but you have given them quickly and spontaneously, I may say. Everything in America is big, and the hearts of its people are no exception.

"If anything had been needed to increase the affection ever existing in France for America and Americans, this solicitude on your part in our hour of trial would have accomplished it. We shall add this evidence of your good will toward us to the many already given and will cherish the memory of them forever."

M. LAGRAVE WILL LEAVE FOR ST. LOUIS MAY 29.

M. Lagrave said that he would remain with the Rochambeau committee until after the formal ceremonles, when he would eave for St. Louis on a flying trip. "I shall remain in New York until Tuesday next," said M. Legrave, "when the committee will go to Washington. On Thursday next we will be officially received at the White House by President and Mrs. Roosevelt. On Saturday the statue of Rochambeau will be unveiled, after which we will return to New York the Monday following.
